

A.C. 41644

STATE OF CONNECTICUT : APPELLATE COURT
V. : STATE OF CONNECTICUT
RICKIE KNOX : OCTOBER 16, 2019

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE BRIEF

The state seeks more time for briefing; defendant is incarcerated and does not object.

CASE HISTORY

Defendant was found guilty after jury trial of criminal possession of a firearm and tampering; the court also adjudicated him a persistent serious felony offender. C.G.S. § 53a – 217, 53-155(a)(1) & 53a-40(c). On 11/6/17, the court, Alander, J, granted a judgment of acquittal on the tampering charge, but granted the state permission to appeal. See A.C. 41168. On 2/9/18, the court imposed a total sentence of 20 years, from which defendant appealed. Transcripts were completed 1/2/19, defendant's brief was first due 2/18, defendant filed his brief 9/26, and the state's brief is first due 10/28/19.

FACTS

I have the following appeals:

1. Alexander v CoC, AC 41328; filed 9/20/19.
2. State v. Robert B, AC 42423; due 11/6/19.
3. State v. Rivera, SC 20277; due 9/19/19, requesting 12/4/19.
4. State v. Knox, AC 41644; due 10/28/19, requesting 12/23/19.
5. State v. Knox, AC 41168; state's reply, requesting 1/20/20.
6. State v. A.B., AC 43227; due 10/5/19, requesting 2/10/19.

I cannot begin this brief until prior briefs are filed. I believe briefing will require less than 4 weeks, as I have already read the transcript for the state's appeal. I therefore request the above extension.

LEGAL GROUNDS

The state relies on Pr. Bk. §§ 66-1 & 66-2.
